

With Good People & God's help all things are possible!

Chad Seeholzer, by no fault of his own, was handicapped at birth with Coffin-Lowery Syndrome. Although life has presented Chad with problems that might break many, Chad is surely not broken; he has been an inspiration by showing unconditional love and forgiveness, strength in adversity, and most importantly he's a Christian with an immeasurable love of God.

Now, Chad wants to give back to Canine Companions For Independence (CCI) for helping him become more independent with the gift a service dog. CCI is a nonprofit organization that survives on donations; therefore, Chad waited 7 long years to receive his CCI dog, Parnell. Chad wants to help another child or adult receive a CCI dog quicker by raising $14,000 which is the amount it takes to sponsor a CCI puppy until he/she has been trained and placed with a person with a disability. This is a huge goal, it will take years, but with your help Chad's wishes will come true. Therefore, we would greatly appreciate your generosity by filling out the bottom form and sending it along with your tax-deductible donation to Canine Companions For Independence (CCI)!

Thank you & God Bless!
